FELICIA (LEVERE) PHILLIPS '61

Felicia Phillips has dedicated her life to spreading the gospel around the world since she left the MBA campus in 1961.

After graduating from Southern College (TN) and getting married to her husband, Lamar, they soon headed off to Central America. In years to come, she served as a teacher/pastor/hospital chaplain/missionary in the countries of Panama, Costa Rica, Bolivia, Philippines, Haiti, Honduras, and Albania. She spent 44 years of her life equipping future pastors in theological subjects, teaching religion, spiritually nurturing nurses and their patients. She is a published writer/author.

Currently, Felicia is employed by Southern Adventist University to teach Life and Teachings of Jesus in the religion department. She is fluent in three languages and has led over 600 people to baptism in Jesus during her lifetime.

MBA is proud to recognize Felicia for her global missionary spirit and dedication to her teaching ministry wherever she happens to be.
